

PSHCE and Wellbeing Curriculum Framework

(Version 4)

September 2016

This document provides the curriculum framework for the delivery of PSHCE & Wellbeing education at White Spire School. The framework supports us in fulfilling the statutory obligations of supporting pupil wellbeing and is fully aligned to the new Ofsted framework (September 2015) as well as to National Curriculum themes – personal development, health & safety, Emotional & Mental Health, anti-bullying, behaviour & welfare, Citizenship, British values and Social, Moral, Spiritual, Cultural education (SMSC including inclusion & equalities)

This curriculum is not fixed, it is evolving and is designed to be amended, changed and added to, to ensure it matches the real, and changing needs of all our pupils.

This curriculum has been developed with contributions from: the students, staff and Governors of White Spire School, The PSHE Association, Public Health England, Community Safety Teams, Road Safety Teams, The Health Education Partnership, The Brook, Sex Education Forum and the National Health Education Group.

There are three core themes:

- 1) Health and Wellbeing
- 2) Relationships
- 3) Living in the Wider World
